

2016 PLI Summit “Re-Building Hope & Creating Change”

Tuesday, April 5, 2016: Pre-Summit Leadership Experience

The Center for Urban Families (CFUF) envisioned an improved service model that would change the way the organization functioned. The changes ignited new ways of thinking, doing business, communicating, and operating. Getting ready for change meant understanding who was willing to go with the flow and who needed to understand the whole vision.

This day will include “speed dating” style conversations with CFUF leaders about what it takes to lead this organizational change. Participants will move between concurrent breakout conversations with four groups of leaders from CFUF’s management team and board of directors.
